

HUF

HUF

Founded in 2002 by professional skateboarder Keith Hufnagel, HUF Worldwide is a manufacturer of premium apparel designed for contemporary skate-lifestyle.

HUF

HUF presents its Fall 2021 collection “Future Shock”, a range of apparel and accessories inspired by the 1970 book by the futurist Alvin Toffler. Toffler used the term to describe a state of disorientation caused by rapid social and technological change. This change overwhelms people, Toffler argued, causing a state of shattering stress. To be Future Shocked.

The Fall collection enters the aftermath of a Future Shocked world. Where information overload has become the uninvited norm, and the demand to return to a natural, unplugged planet is on the rise. It's technology vs. Mother Nature – this season's creation is in the conflict.

Throughout the collection, artificial color-pop trims, logos and graphics meet a natural and earth-infused color palette. Graphic heavy patterns featuring maps, florals and organic washes, are combined with “technology vs. nature” inspired graphics.

HUF gets fully Future Shocked this Fall. Plug in.
