MAKA P

Boardies® has long admired the artwork from internationally acclaimed American artist Don Pendleton, who amongst other projects has designed artwork for one of our favourite bands, US rock gods - Pearl Jam!

Don Pendleton's aesthetic compositions resonate from linear organic cubist creations and similarly move to more expressionist forms that deal with issues of communication in a narrative, visual context. He often incorporates references to insects, animals and ambiguous characters to complete his finished compositions.

For SS20, we have teamed up to create these 2 unique Boardies® prints, in his unique style. The first style is called "Owl" and features our symbolic palm icon and geometric shapes in vibrant orange and blue. The second style is simply known as "Fish", linking back to Boardies® fascination with the ocean, featuring abstract fish scales, eyes in a wonderful colour palette including turquoise and hot pink.

With Don Pendleton's art being sort after across the world, this is a great opportunity for customers to own a piece of his work together with Boardies[®].

Lois O'Hara is an artist and designer from the UK coastal town of Brighton.

Known for her vibrant murals, printmaking and paintings.

Boardies® and Lois share a love for art, basketball and surf. We have admired her work since she painted the UK's first giant Basketball Art Court followed by her vivid planters close to our East London Studio.

There is a consistent thread running through her work. "I'm interested in capturing the fluidity of an image in motion," says Lois, and it's this sense of fluidity, combined with her bold colour combinations that makes her work so recognisable and a perfect match in working with Boardies."
