THE HOOLIGAN DRIVER CAP

This is the hat that started it all. Influenced by their Great Grandfather, Pietro, the crew saw a hole in the hat market when trying to find driver caps. The Hooligan was created to pay homage to Pietro and recreate his style to inspire the next generation.

THE BROOD NEWSBOY CAP

Brixton's first ever newsboy cap, the Brood in Cream/Navy, was a unique departure from traditional menswear, offering a direct nod to vintage sports. This special color way was also designed by our creative director, and one of the founders of the brand, Peter Stoddard.

THE GAIN FEDORA

In 2004 Brixton created the Gain. Inspired from classic mens stingy brimmed hats, this was the first ever felt brimmed fedora created by Brixton. It distinctly featured a custom designed interior Virgin Mary print along with an exterior band that paved the way for more creativity in trims and other detail.

THE BOWERY FLANNEL

The original Bowery Flannel was conceived out of a dyer love for plaids from the 1950's. The crew found themselves digging through bin after bin, always on the hunt for inspiration. Focused on the vintage cuts and unique details found on each piece, they created a modern take on a timeless classic.

THE DETROIT POCKET TEE

As a continuation of vintage-inspired athletics, the crew wanted to bring the look and feel of old-timey baseball into an apparel piece that looked and felt like a thrift find but had the fit that you actually wanted to wear. This special color way was designed by our creative director, and one of the founders of the brand, Peter Stoddard.

THE FIDDLER FISHERMAN'S CAP

The Fisherman's Cap served as workwear piece for the merchant sailors throughout the 20th century and usually a standard blue or black. Only until the 1950s did the cap become adopted in pop culture. The Fiddler, which is one of Brixton's staple headwear styles, conforms to the original colors original Fishermans were worn, although we tends to add color pops, fabric blocking, and wide range of distinct visual aesthetics never before seen in this silhouette.

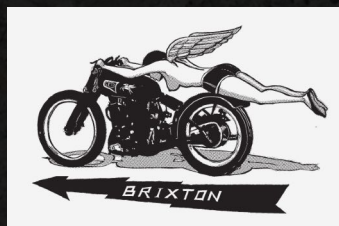

THE TILLER HAT

A later piece created by the Brixton the Tiller took the world by storm. Adopted by many cultures, the Tiller could be seen on the likes of skaters, outdoor goers and in the Hip Hop scene. It soon came to be that you didn't want find yourself anywhere without having one in close reach. Blending traditional menswear with fashion in a outdoor aesthetic.

THE MAST JACKET

The N-1 Deck Jacket was introduced in World War II, replacing the popular Pea Coat. Originally this jacket was designed for the military, many other cultures adopted it, from the early bikers to the beatniks. Looking backwards to create something meaningful for today, the designers were intrigued by the jackets functionality but wanted to put on spin on it by updating it's materials and fit. The Mast continues to be the most iconic Brixton jacket from the archives.

THE FLIER TEE AND HAT

One of the earliest pieces of art designed by the brand, dating back to 2004, this graphic came from the teams obsession with the history of the Cafe Racing culture and the art that represented it.

WHAT GOES INTO MAKING A BETTER HAT...

WE ONLY MAKE OUR FELT HATS WITH CRUELTY-FREE AUSTRALIAN WOOL.

Wool is a naturally biodegradable textile with temperature-regulating properties. We use 100% Australian cruelty-free wool that ensures animal welfare and fair handling.

MAKE IT THE PERFECT FIT

Most of our brims have a built-in fit adjuster. Just pull back sweatband inside the crown of the hat to reveal the adjuster tab. Pull to your liking and affix to the velcro tab. Adjust as needed for the perfect fit.
