The Art of Drying Off

Sustainability

Slowtide is dedicated to leaving a positive impression. Every garment we make impacts our environment, and we take responsibility for doing everything we can to minimize, control, and reduce those impacts. Using sustainable products not only helps the planet, but it ensures your product will last as well.

SUSTAINABLY SOURCED COTTON

The Cotton LEADS program is committed to responsible cotton production and founded on core principles that are consistent with sustainability, the use of best practices and traceability in the supply chain. The program offers manufacturers, brands, and retailers a reliable cotton supply chain solution and confidence that their raw material is responsibly produced and identified.

GIVING BACK

Slowtide understands the importance of working together to create a better world. We seek organizations that share our values and support them through our initiatives. Slowtide is determined to facilitate change through community outreach, education, and donation. Some of our partners include Surfrider, Sustainable Coastlines Hawaii, The North Shore Lifeguards Association and the global leader in product philanthropy and purposeful giving, Good360.

RECYCLED MATERIALS

All Slowtide polyester products are made from 100% recycled post-consumer waste, primarily plastic bottles, transforming it into premium polyester fibers. They are certified through the Global Recycle Standard which applies to the full supply chain, addressing traceability, environmental principles, social requirements, and labelling.

ETHICAL MANUFACTURING

Slowtide actively uses clean factories and responsible materials for all of our products. We have travelled around the world in search of the best factories, assuring they have fair working conditions and happy employees.

OEKO-TEX CERTIFIED

All Slowtide products exceed the Oeko-Tex Standard 100 certification meaning that they are safely produced and do not contain any allergic substances. The fabric has been tested and certified to be free of harmful chemicals so it is always safe to use!

Collaborations

Originally born in Finland, Arto Saari has established an international name for himself as one of the most respected athletes in the skateboarding community. Awarded the Thrasher magazine “Skater of the Year” award back in 2001, he has since proven himself to be a driving force in the cultural movement that blends art and skateboarding together. Beyond his career as a professional skateboarder, Arto has also amassed a prolific body of photographic work. From portraiture to landscapes, his images are arresting snapshots that seem to flawlessly capture the effervescence of a singular moment.

Five years ago, Arto and his family moved to the North Shore of Oahu where he developed a newfound passion for all things revolving around the ocean. We are honored to feature a few of his favorite ocean images from his time in Hawaii. Each image comes with a deep backstory of things like how the swell was on that day, what surfers were out in the water, and what camera and lens he chose to shoot with on that day.
